

Broadlands Archives

Professor Chris Woolgar, is Head of Special Collections, Professor of History and Archival Studies at Southampton University.

This department that has been caring for the Broadlands archives for the past twenty years.

It is now trying to raise funds to buy the archives outright, so they will remain safely in the county for the future.

On Wednesday 27th January, he will be talking to the Lower Test Valley Archaeological Study Group (LTVAS) about the Broadlands Archives. Visitors are always welcome at these meetings.

Wednesday 27 January 2010
Romsey Town Hall at 8 pm

N. B. There is a small charge for visitors to these meetings, please view the website below for details

<http://www.ltvas.org.uk>